Local people developing local solutions to local issues

Who are we?

Regional Development Australia (RDA) is a national network of committees made up of local leaders who work with all levels of government, business and community groups to support the economic development of their regions.

In the Northern Territory, RDA is a partnership between the Australian and Northern Territory Governments. RDA Northern Territory is based in Darwin, with an additional staff member located in Alice Springs. The committee is comprised of members from across the Northern Territory.

What do we do?

RDA members work to actively grow strong and confident economies in their regions that harness their competitive advantages, seize on economic opportunity and attract investment.
